Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2018. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English. Brand new Book. Mero Perez is all things to all people. He's handsome, confident, and unmistakably thuggish in every sense of the word. Mero Perez is in demand, but he's very selective about who he lets in his world. For the ones he loves, he honors, protects, and will do any and everything necessary to make sure they live a life of royalty. After fifteen years in the streets, he's built a world that allows him to give all things to those he loves and to live without regrets. What else is there to do besides walk away and enjoy everything that he's worked so hard to gain? If only it were that easy. It's proving to be more difficult than he assumed it would be. Within the blink of an eye, his world begins crashing down around him. The wife that he's loved for the past six years has secrets that will end them, while his family becomes a target of an unknown assailant. Everything that he believed true about his life is slowly changing, including the woman who now holds his interest. Khaleel Perez has a reckless mouth and even more reckless behavior. Aside from the security of the life that he's built alongside the only man he trusts, his cousin Mero, Khaleel puts very little importance on much else. He loves women, and they love him even more. With his good looks and stacked accounts, he has an endless supply of them who won't deny him anything. Well, all except the one he refuses to give in to. Khaleel finds himself questioning his unfaithful ways for a woman who has very little interest in locking him down. That one fact about her makes him want...
